Hon. Sally A. Talberg, Commissioner

ORDER

On May 27, 2011, Cintex Wireless, LLC (Cintex) filed an application, pursuant to Section 214(e)(2) of the federal Communications Act of 1934, 47 USC 214(e)(2), for designation as an eligible telecommunications carrier (ETC) for purposes of receiving federal universal service fund support for wireless services. On March 14, 2012, Cintex filed a compliance plan with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), outlining the measures it will take to implement the conditions imposed by the FCC in its Lifeline Reform Order, FCC 12-11.¹ As of today's date, the Commission has not received an approved compliance plan.

¹ In the Matter of Lifeline and Link Up Reform and Modernization (WC Docket No.11-42), Lifeline and Link Up (WC Docket No. 03-109), Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service (CC Docket No. 96-45), Advancing Broadband Availability through Digital Literacy Training (WC Docket No. 12-23), Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, Order No. FCC 12-11, rel'd February 6, 2012 (Lifeline Reform Order).

A significant amount of time has passed since the last filing made by Cintex on April 25, 2012. The Commission Staff (Staff) mailed a letter to Cintex on October 7, 2014, requesting that the company provide the necessary information to the Commission within thirty days or the docket would be closed. Cintex has not provided a response to the Staff, nor has it submitted any information into the docket. The Commission finds that the application of Cintex for ETC designation should be dismissed. The company may re-apply for ETC designation after it has obtained all necessary and required information, including an FCC-approved compliance plan.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the application of Cintex Wireless, LLC, for designation as an eligible telecommunications carrier is dismissed.

The Commission reserves jurisdiction and may issue further orders as necessary.

Any party aggrieved by this order may file an action in the appropriate federal District Court pursuant to 28 USC 1331.
